A LUNCHEON.

Mrs. W. E. Russell entertained very charmingly at a one o'clock luncheon and afternoon card party yesterday at her home in Webb street in honor of the members of the Columbia Club. The luncheon was one of beautiful appointments served in four courses. Christmas greens decorated the luncheon tables very attractively. During the afternoon euchre was played progressively at four tables and high score was made by Mrs. W. E. Russell. The second honors were won by Mrs. W. F. Bridge. On the evening of January 3 Mrs. John H. McClay and Mrs. A. F. Rohrer will entertain the members of the club and their husbands at a six-thirty o'clock dinner at the Hammond Country Club. The dinner will be followed with cards.

A CHRISTMAS PARTY.

Mrs. S. E. Davis entertained the members of the R. A. E. Club at a delightful Christmas party yesterday afternoon at her home in Michigan avenue. Mrs. Merchant's mother, Mrs.

tained with the club members. The afternoon was spent socially with games and music following which a prettily appointed two course luncheon was served. A "Grab Bag" was a feature of the afternoon and each member received a pretty gift. Mrs. Feltzer of Harrison street was named as the next hostess and she will entertain the member of the club at a thimble party in three weeks on Thursday afternoon.

A PRETTY PARTY.

Mrs. Clark Learning was hostess at a very pretty Christmas party yesterday afternoon at her home in South Hohman street. Her guests were the members of the Colonial Club. The guests devoted a part of the afternoon to their needle work following which they were served with a dainty two course luncheon. The luncheon table was decorated attractively with a miniature Christmas tree and wreaths.

Asken of Wheeling, W. Va., was entertained holly, carrying out the holiday colors. A "Grab Bag" was a feature of the meeting and the members received very pretty gifts. The next club party will not be given until after the holiday season and the hostess for the afternoon will be named later.

AN EVENING PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Swalm were host and hostess last evening at their home, 183 Detroit street to the members of the Detroit Street Bridge Club. With the members Mr. and Mrs. Swalm entertained Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bostwick. Cards were played progressively at four tables, high scores in the games being made by Mrs. Raymond Zoll and Mr. L. P. Felizer. The consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Charles Bostwick and Mr. Roy Fowler. At the conclusion of the card games a two course luncheon was served. The next meeting of the club will occur on New Year's Eve and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wise will be host and hostess. They will entertain at a six o'clock dinner and card party.

HOLD WEEKLY MEETING.

Mrs. Perry Man of Ridge road was at home yesterday afternoon to the members of the Baptist Women's Union. The president, Mrs. W. A. Hill presided. Following a short business session the social committee of which Mrs. Carl Anderson is chairman took charge of the meeting. A delightful program was given following which a three course luncheon was served. There was a large attendance of the members at the meeting, all of whom greatly enjoyed the afternoon's program. There will be no meetings during the holiday season and announcement of the next meeting will be made later. The following program was given yesterday:

Vocal solo..... Ariene Anderson
Reading.....Miss Ethel Hirsch
Vocal Duet.....Mrs. James
Dickson and Mrs. Claude Palmer

Miss Blanche Nixon of Muenich Court will be the guest of her parents in Marville, Mo., during the holidays. Miss Mabel Cain will leave today to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives and friends in Monon, Ind.
